1. Getting There by Metro

Athens currently has three main metro lines (Line 1 – Green, Line 2 – Red, and Line 3 – Blue. KEMEA is closest to Line 3 (Blue Line).

1. Nearest Metro Station: Katechaki Station (Line 3 – Blue) - This station is about a 5-10 minute walk from KEMEA.
2. From Syntagma Square (City Center) to Katehaki:

Take the Blue Line (Line 3) in the direction of Doukissis Plakentias / Airport. Get off at Katehaki Station (approximately 6 stops from Syntagma, ~10 minutes). Exit the station following the signs to Katehaki Avenue or Kifisias Avenue.

2. Walking Directions from Katehaki Metro Station

1. Exit the station and look for signs toward Katechaki Avenue or the Ministry for Citizen Protection.
2. Walk east along Katehaki Avenue for a few minutes.
3. Turn onto P. Kanellopoulou Street; KEMEA will be located at No. 4 on your right-hand side.
4. You can also use Google Maps walking directions for a more precise route.

3. Getting There by Bus

Main Bus Lines Near Katechaki Station: Several bus lines stop around Katehaki Avenue. From Syntagma Square or other central areas, you may find direct or single-transfer routes leading to the Katehaki area.

1. Bus Tickets: You can use a paper ticket for both metro and bus. Ensure you validate your ticket once on board the bus or at the station entrance for the metro.

4. Getting There by Taxi / Ride-Share

- Taxi: Taxis are readily available throughout Athens. You can hail a taxi on the street, go to a designated taxi stand, or use your hotel concierge to call one.
- Ride-Share Apps: Beat or Uber
- Approximate Costs:

From Syntagma Square to KEMEA: ~10–15 EUR (depending on traffic).

From Athens International Airport: ~35–45 EUR (flat daytime rate to downtown Athens).
